

The 12th European Member Care Consultation

Relationships in a world of conflict and chaos

Loving God, your neighbour, yourself, your enemy

The world seems to be increasingly polarised, with relationships characterised by animosity and divisiveness even in the church and mission. How do we embrace and foster authentically loving and sacrificial relationships in our teams and communities?

Our Bible studies in Romans 12 will inform our thinking on crucial relationships such as team, church, family, agency, spouse, nationals, persecutors, leaders and God as we see to share the gospel with others not only in what we do and say, but in who we are and how we live.

Speakers:

Our speakers come from a variety of backgrounds, experience and nationalities. We're delighted that our Bible readings will be led by Jonathan Ward of Pierres Vivantes, and that our plenary speakers are:

Harry Hoffmann (Global Member Care Network) on Loving God

Mihai Lundell (OCI) on Loving Your Neighbour

Christine Schuppener (Schuppener Global Transitions) on Loving Yourself

Anne Reitsema (Medair) on Loving Your Enemy

Workshops:

If you've been to an EMCC in the past, you'll find it very different this year. We are moving the emphasis onto workshops so that we are having 12 workshops each day!

Who is it for?

- Member Care workers in and from Europe
- Mission Leaders
- Church leaders responsible for intercultural workers
- Those in training or starting out in pastoral care
- People in Human Resources
